

Rice Fergus Miller

Truly great work flows from a sense of community built with clients and partners

Established:
1987

Operates:
United States

Industry:
Architecture Design

Business Concept

- Provides architecture, interior design, and planning services with a focus on community-centered spaces
- Specializes in projects for civic, cultural, healthcare, and hospitality services
- Utilize sustainable design to create buildings that support long-term community wellbeing

Sustainability

- Certified B Corporation: meets rigorous standards for environmental responsibility, social impact, and ethical business practices
- Integrates sustainability into each project, prioritizing energy efficiency and thoughtful lifecycle design
- Invests in team training and collaboration

B-Impact Score: Strengths

*80 qualifies for B Corp Certification, average is 50.9

- Governance: Mission Locked ✓
- Workers: Financial security ✓
- Community: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion ✓
- Environment: Training & Collaboration ✓
- Customers: Customer Stewardship ✓

Brand Value and Economic Benefits

"Becoming a Certified B Corporation legitimizes our pursuit of sustainability both in operations and practice and gives us the opportunity to educate others." - Rice Fergus Miller

- Appeals to clients who value responsible development and environmentally conscious architecture
- Builds long-term trust through a commitment to people-first design

Learn More

Rice Fergus Miller: A Certified B-Corporation

Rice Fergus Miller Website

B-Score Full Breakdown: Rice Fergus Miller

SUSTAINABILITY
AMBASSADORS

Student-created (Matthew Fischer)