

Color for Climate Action – Gallery Acceptance Rubric

	Criteria for Acceptance in Gallery	Notes	Yes/No (Circle one)
Does the work qualify as visual art?	Various types of artworks are accepted such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Digital Art, Drawings, Comic Art, Graphic Art, Interior Design, Jewelry, Painting, Printmaking, Sculpture, Sketches 	Photographs of 2D or 3D art are accepted	Yes/No
By looking at the work, does it address a Sustainable Systems theme/topic?	Work addresses an innovation, issue, or idea in the Sustainability Systems Sandwich: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Climate Change, Energy, Water, Food, Buildings, Materials, Transportation, Triple Bottom-Line: Environmental, Economy, Equity 	If the artist's work doesn't align to a Sustainable Systems topic but aligns to environmental impact, write the specific topic it connects to in the "Other" section of the Google Forms.	Yes/No
Is the work + artist's statement original in its interpretation of the theme/topic?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - There must be no evident signs of plagiarism - Work + artist's statement should reflect the artist's own thoughts 	If the artist had a source of inspiration in mind, list the most important ones in the Artwork Submission Google Forms.	Yes/No
Is the artist's statement written in a grammatically correct, fluent, and comprehensible way?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Grammar: No spelling, punctuation, or grammatical errors. - Fluency: The statement is easily read, and the reader logically understands it. - Comprehension: Work shows a decent understanding of the topic addressed. 	Artist statements with minor grammatical mistakes will still be accepted. However, artists should keep in mind that descriptions must have a basic flow with clarity.	Yes/No
Does the work have an appropriate title?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Artwork title is representative of the piece & shows understanding of the chosen topic 	Artists will receive this point if they have a title that relates to the work.	Yes/No
Total	Submissions must earn a "Yes" in ALL 5 categories for work/s to be showcased in the gallery.		Yes/No